YOUR FRUIT & VITICULTURE MACHINERY SPECIALISTS

Ernest Doe & Sons Ltd has been supplying machinery and supporting growers across the East and South East of England since 1898. Today, we combine one of the UK's largest agricultural machinery dealer networks with specialist expertise dedicated to the fruit and viticulture sector.

Working closely with vineyard and orchard businesses of all sizes, we offer a carefully selected portfolio of tractors, harvesters, sprayers, cultivation equipment, canopy management machinery, trailers and specialist implements from leading manufacturers.

Our dedicated Fruit & Viticulture Sales Manager, Derek Peck, is supported by a network of 19 branches, fully equipped workshops, factory-trained service engineers and extensive parts stocks, ensuring customers receive expert advice and dependable support throughout the life of their machinery.

Whether you are establishing a new vineyard, expanding an existing operation or replacing key equipment, Ernest Doe can provide complete machinery solutions backed by the service, parts availability and technical expertise needed to keep your business moving.

From specialist vineyard tractors and harvesters to sprayers, trimmers, cultivators and trailers, Ernest Doe is your trusted partner for fruit and viticulture machinery.

NEW HOLLAND

As New Holland dealers, we are proud to be associated with today's range of New Holland tractors, offering outstanding levels of performance, comfort and reliability. New Holland has a long tradition of excellence in the production of specialised orchard tractors and harvesters designed to meet the demands of professional fruit and vine growers. Specialist products include the New Holland T4 Auto Command, alongside the T4 and T3 tractor ranges and the renowned Braud grape harvester.

The full range of New Holland products is available through our Ernest Doe branch network.

NEW HOLLAND BRAUD HARVESTER

Recognised worldwide within the viticulture industry, Braud harvesters are designed to deliver outstanding harvesting performance, gentle crop handling and excellent operator comfort. Built to meet the demands of modern specialist crop operations, Braud machines combine innovative technology with proven reliability to maximise productivity while maintaining crop quality. In addition to vineyard applications, Braud harvesters are increasingly being used across a range of specialist crop and harvesting applications.

Having supplied a number of Braud machines to growers across the region, Ernest Doe is well placed to provide expert advice together with full parts and service support through our branch network.

SERVICE AND PARTS

support when you need it most...

Each of our 19 branches has fully equipped, state of the art workshops including the latest diagnostic machinery and special tooling. The workshops are manned by fully trained service technicians, most of whom have served a land-based apprenticeship (NVQ Level 3 leading to a certificate and diploma in field service engineering) with the company.

The company has 160 technicians, 125 of whom are factory trained and qualified mobile service engineers in fully equipped Transit vans who are able to service/repair machinery on-site rather than in our workshops. Additionally, the company has extensive parts stocking and parts delivery vans which cover the whole trading area. Every branch carries fast moving parts, and other parts can be made available from our head office or direct from the manufacturer. Current parts stock levels are c£7m.
